

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mrs. Geo. H. Iseninger on Monday morning, of typhoid fever. While her death was not unexpected, it is nevertheless sad indeed, and the husband and little ones have the deep sympathy of the community at large. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ellsbury who also mourn her departure.