

Brought Back Home.

The remains of Joseph W. Shaw were brought from Hope, N. D., this week to be interred at Friendship, where his wife and others of the family are buried. About 14 years ago Mr. Shaw and his family lived in this village, then comprising Mr. and Mrs. Shaw, Miss Bello Wood, a sister of the latter, and Bert Shaw, a son just merging into his 'teens. Now Mr. and Mrs. Shaw sleep in the cemetery of their first home in the west, at Friendship. The family was a part of a colony of most excellent people from New York, who from this pleasant little village at the base of the "Mound" looked back to another Friendship in the East. Now after another generation many of these original settlers are coming back from newer homes, further west, to the once new home at Friendship, for the last, long, final home, at the foot of the Mound. Miss Wood has since married and has followed her husband to the grave. The boy, Bert, has grown to manhood, and is one of the most highly regarded young men of Hope.

Mr. Shaw and wife came to Adams county in 1867, living at Friendship, Point Bluff and Olin, for 20 years. Fourteen years ago they moved to Dakota Territory, and eight years ago the wife was taken to Friendship to be buried. B. C. Shaw brought his father's remains to Friendship, and was met here by Ned Wood, of Twin Valley, who is a brother of the late Mrs. Shaw. Mrs. Smith, of Madison, a sister of the deceased, was also here.—The Kilbourn City, (Wis.) Mirror-Gazette.
