

The school board is having the basement of the new public school finished to be used as a laboratory. The school will be fully equipped as a first class high school this season which will be appreciated by the patrons.