

School Notes.

The school which fails to impress its pupils with an intelligent and abiding respect for law and order falls grievously short of its mission.

Education is a relative term, but its ultimate aim is the realization of the fundamentals of life:

The higher life—Intellectual activity.

Appreciation of art.

Character.

Fraternity.

Devotion to duty.

Those who received honorary standings for the third month in the High School Department are as follows:

Physics—Lew Bowen, 92; Robert Stewart, 88.

Plane Geometry—Florence Link, 98; Jessie White, 96.

Physiography—Edna Gray, 97; Lizzie Cyrus, 96; Maude Laramore, 90.

Algebra—Frank Moote, 97; Lizzie Cyrus, 96; Vincent Officer, 95.

Caesar—Florence Link, 97; Jessie White, 96; Edna Gray, 93; Emma Slingsby, 92.

Botany—Ella Nelson, 96; Eunice Jacobson, 95.

Zoology—Ella Nelson, 92; Eunice Jacobson, 90.

General History—Frank Gilmore, 92.

French—Ella Nelson, 92; Jessie White, 93; Eunice Jacobson, 91.

Book-keeping—L. J. Bowen, 97; Frank Gilmore, 94; Frank Moote, 92.

Eng. I.—Vincent Officer, 90; Lizzie Cyrus, 90.

Eng. II.—L. J. Bowen, 95; R. Stewart, 96; Florence Link, 94; Jessie White, 94.

Eng. III.—Robert Stewart, 96; Ella Nelson, 92; L. J. Bowen, 94; Eunice Jacobson, 89.

In the Eighth grade the following received the highest average for the third month:

Edna Joslyn, 85.

Ethel Joslyn, 84.

Zella Jacobson, 80.

In the Seventh grade:

Bertha Kuhn, 88.

Mildred Danskin, 87.

Clara Woodworth, 85.

In the Sixth grade:

Inez Stewart, 86.

Harry Aldrich, 83.

In the Fifth grade:

Teddie Thurlow, 80.

Harry Vadnie, 76.

The following in the Third grade were perfect in spelling:

Marion White.

Ina Jefferson.

In the Fourth grade:

Blanche Warner.

Henry Griswold.

In the Second grade:

Zoe Baker.

Lyle Bowen.

Alice Joslyn.

Grace Harness.

George Sussex.

Sibyl-Wamberg.

Hazel Ward.

There were two cases of tardiness in this grade.

The following pupils in the Primary Department contributed to the piano fund:

Perry Olson.

Ralph McKay.

Doris Tillotson.

Jessie Carpenter.

William Hanley.

Grace Lunding.

Willie Bowen.

Blake Warner.

Leslie Dorrance.

James Meader.

The following had perfect spelling lessons for week ending December 2nd.

Jesse Carpenter.

Doris Tillotson.

Leslie Dorrance.

Grace Lunding.

Jamie Iseminger.

Glen Ebeling.

Zelma Moores.

William Hanley.

Willie Bowen.

Francis Quenett.