McMann-Varty

On Sunday afternoon the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Carpenter was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when James A. Varty and Mary A. McMann, both of St. Johns, N. D., repeated the vows that made them husband and wife. A merry company of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony and joined in hearty congratulations and best wishes with many beautiful and well chosen remembrances. The bridal couple were accompanied by Miss Belle Martin and Mr. B. C. Shaw while Miss Myrtle Milligan rendered the wedding march faultless in precision and technique. Dame Nature, faultlessly arrayed, seemed anxious to efface the memory of her ungracious behavior which prevented the ceremony's consummation on Thanksgiving day. After a sumptuous wedding dinner and a season of music and happy conversation the merry company wended their ways homeward wishing the happy pair contentment and long life.

White-Chilson

Last Tuesday, December 5, at high noon occurred the marriage of Miss Mamie White to Mr. C. F. Chilson, at Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. J. A. White, the bride's father, Miss Georgia White and Dr. Cora W. Carpenter, sisters, witnessed the ceremony which was performed at the Sanker-shein Hotel.

The bride is a popular and accomplished young lady of this vicinity, having lived here since childhood. The groom is a prominent business man of Markham, Texas, and is the manager of the Buckeye ranch, one of the largest ranching propositions in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Chilson will tour the west after which they will visit Mr. Chilson's home in Ohio. They will make Markham their permanent home.

The Pioneer extends hearty congratulations.
