

A quite little wedding ceremony was performed at the home of A. E. Plouf last Sunday, which united Gen. O. Marshall and Miss Mabel Plouf in the holy bonds of matrimony. None but relatives of the bride were present and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Vance, of the First Presbyterian church. Mr. Marshall is the station agent at this point and a man whose integrity is above reproach. The bride is a sister of A. E. Plouf, proprietor of the Colgate House, and a lady who has a wide circle of friends. Here are congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall.
