

Double Wedding

A pretty double wedding took place at the home of Herbert Robertson, near Grand Rapids, when his daughter, Miss Janet, was united in marriage to Walter Masters, of Hope, N. D., and Delia Johnson to Ray Blackman, of Springfield, Minn., Tuesday, Nov. 20, at 4 o'clock. The Rev. Nordeweare, of LaMoure, performed the ceremony in the presence of the most immediate relatives. The bride's were dressed alike in tasteful gowns of white lustre mohair and carried bouquets of red and white American roses. The grooms wore the usual black.

A reception was tendered them in the Yoeman Hall at Grand Rapids. A bountiful supper was served in which Miss Mary Robertson and Miss Hulda Johnson, sisters of the brides, acted as cateresses.

They received many useful and valuable presents.

Those present from away were Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, of Wahpeton and Frank Masters, of Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Blackman left yesterday for Springfield, Minn., where they intend making their future home, while Mr. and Mrs. Masters left for their future home at Hope. Their many friends join in wishing them health, happiness and prosperity throughout life.—Dickey Reporter.
