

Homer Resler Married

Cupid played a pleasant game which was ended Wednesday at high noon with the marriage of Homer Resler and Miss Adele C. Ronstead at the home of the bride's parents at Starkweather, Rev. Andrews officiating. An elegant wedding dinner was served, and the happy couple left on the afternoon train for a wedding trip to the twin cities, and from there they will go to Westington, S. D., to spend the holidays with Mr. Resler's parents. They will reside in Starkweather. The wedding was a quiet affair, none but the immediate friends of the parties being present. The bride was the acknowledged belle of her home town, popular, beautiful and accomplished. The groom is one of the prominent business men of the county, editor of the Starkweather Times, a prominent attorney, and is both popular and prosperous. Here's congratulations sincere.—Devils Lake Inter-Ocean.
