

Smith-Alert

From The Langdon Republican:

Tuesday morning at the Presbyterian church in this city, occurred the marriage of two of Langdon's most popular young people, Fred E. Smith and Miss Leonore Allert, Rev. Wilson officiating. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion and well filled with relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Promptly at ten o'clock the wedding march, played by Miss Mabel McKnight, ushered in the bridal party led by Rev. Wilson. Following were the ushers, Dr. Tom Smith and Prof. D. J. Ridlington, the groom accompanied by S. H. Little as groomsman, the bridesmaids, Misses Vivian Allert and Ethel McKnight, and the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, was led to the altar and by him given to the groom. The ceremony was both beautiful and impressive.

The bride is one of Langdon's beautiful and accomplished young ladies and is well known, having lived here since her girlhood. Her friends are numbered by scores. She was tastefully gowned in white crepe de chine, with a yoke of Irish point lace and a white bridal veil. She carried a bunch of bridal roses. Her traveling suit was grey tweed with hat to match. The bridesmaids wore white net over blue and each carried a bunch of pink roses.

The groom is one of our attorneys, having located here about two years ago and by hard work has built up an excellent practice. When a lad he was devil in a printing office but when he was promoted it took the ambition for the art of preservation out of him and he turned his his attention to the study of law. He was associated with one of the best lawyers in Minnesota, but left there for larger and better fields. He is energetic and a tireless worker in his profession and has made a host of friends since locating here.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents to the marriage party and a reception was held from 12 o'clock until 2 p. m. The happy couple left on the afternoon train on a wedding trip to the groom's parents in Morris, Minn., and other points in the east. They will be at home to their friends in this city after November 1st. We join their host of friends in extending congratulations.
