

Wednesday, Dec. 16th last, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Witherill in St. Paul, occurred the marriage of J. E. Williams and Miss May Thayer, Rev. Ackerman of Kings St. M. E. church officiating. Mr. Williams is the son of W. S. Williams of Hope, N. D., and is favorably known by his many friends. Miss Thayer, the amiable daughter of P. T. Thayer, is prominent among her friends in St. Paul, and is highly esteemed by all who made her acquaintance. Both parties are well known and their numerous friends join in wishing them an equal share of the many good things in life. Mr. and Mrs. Williams are now at home to friends both in and out of town.
