

All Colgate is groaning over the news that the depot was closed Thursday. A petition signed by the citizens of Colgate was sent to the R. R. Commissioners in hopes that the order may be revoked as this station does much more local business than is required to hold the station by law.

---