

Mr. Keillor, Sr., was severely kicked on the head by a horse, last Wednesday morning. He has been very low and slight hopes were entertained for his recovery, but he is now improving.

The Daily Journal, Monday, August 10, 1885.