

Jim McVeety Grippled

J. H. McVeety, now of Fargo, in the early days depot agent in Mayville and well-known here, has filed a claim against the estate of the late A. J. Gallagher for $10,000 for injuries received by falling on the floor of the toilet room in the Lynch & Gallagher saloon in East Grand Forks. McVeety sets forth in his claim that his injuries were sustained on Nov. 10 last, by reason of the defective plumbing in the toilet room, the defects allowing water to run over the floor. He slipped and fell heavily to the floor, in so doing fracturing his hip and injuring his left leg so that he has ever since been compelled to use crutches in order to move around, and that his condition is permanent.—Mayville Tribune.
