

Class of '07.

The third annual commencement of the Hope High was celebrated at the opera house on Friday evening, May 31st. A packed house greeted the class and a fine literary and musical program was rendered. The first number on the program was an instrumental duet by Misses Larson and Camp, which was followed by the invocation. The next number was a quartette, "Loch Lomond" by Misses Ehred and Washington and Mesdames Wamberg and Fead. The following orations were delivered by the members of the class: "Napoleon Bonaparte" Earl Hughes; "The Value of an Education" Robt. A. Officer; "The Enthusiasm of Friendship" Will L. Jacobson; Essay, "Patriotism" Jennie Houge; "An American Hero" Ray H. Nelson; "The World's Debt to Shakespeare" J. V. Officer; each member of the class did excellent and are deserving of great credit for the able manner with which they handled their subjects. The orations were interspersed by a vocal solo, "Love Me and the world is Mine" by Miss Williams. The Girls' Glee Club followed the orations with a very beautiful selection entitled "Night". Dr. Stearns, of Grand Forks, delivered the address of the evening. The last number on the program was a quartette "Moonlight will Come Again" by Mesdames Wamberg and Fead and Messrs Jacobson and Halstin, which was followed by the presentation of diplomas by Pres. R. A. Lathrop, and the benediction.
