Bingham--Ashford.

From Tribune, Wyburn, Sask., Can.:

There could have been no more propitious weather than that which characterized last Wednesday in the minds of those concerned when Harvey Nelson Bingham and Miss Elizabeth Ashford were united in the bonds of matrimony. The entire function took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Ashford. No less than 36 people responded to the kind invitation of the host and hostess. Immediately before the ceremony which was performed by Rev. R. S. Leslie, B. A. Miss Higginbotham played a wedding march, with the assembling of the company in the drawing-room and adjoining room.

Many and happy were the congratulations that the young couple received from their friends, and the presents were numerous and costly. After the marriage service the party gathered in a spacious leafy bower adjoining the house and there enjoyed the breakfast which consisted of characteristic dishes and dainties. The scene was a very animated one and enjoyed by all. The bride was attired in a becoming dress of white silk voile, and wore in her hair a garland of English primrose, and she carried a large bouquet of fragrant red roses—a present from Dakota. Miss Mary Ashford was the bridesmaid and little Miss Audrey Fox was the flower girl. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Nelson Bingham left by the evening train for Winnipeg. On their return a reception will be given in their honor at Mr. T. Ashford's. The presents and donors were as follows, and speak volumes for the affection and esteem in which both the young people are held by their friends:

Centre table, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery; wicker chair, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Nickle toilet set, Mr. and Mrs. Freeland; table linen, Mrs. E. Charpell, Oxbow; table cover, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ross; carving set, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lloyd; silver butter dish, Mrs. J. H. Campbell; silver pickle stand and cruet, Mr. and Mrs. Ingell; table linen, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Waddell; silver pickle stand and yearling colt, James Ashford; locket and yearling colt, George Ashford; cut glass berry set, James Broley card receiver, Ed. Mitchell; cut-glass berry set, Roy Bingham; table napkins, Mrs. Hall, Fargo; silver cake dish; J. and Miss Higginbotham; silver teaspoons, Vera Lloyd; carving set, Mr. and Mrs. Crayford; silver sugar bowl, L. A. Freeland; silver pickle stand, Mr. and Mrs. Hallam; quilt and table linen, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bingham; $10 and 1 cow, Mary Ashford; $10 and set of dishes, Susie Ashford; $20 and gold watch and chain, Mrs. T. Ashford; $5,000.00, T. Ashford.

Last Saturday afternoon about twenty-five ladies responded to the following invitation which proved to be an exceedingly pretty and unique affair:

Mrs. Harness and Mrs. A. E. Warner invite you to spend
"An hour with Minnie"
at a China Shower, Saturday afternoon from four to five, at the home of Mrs. Harness

A contest of sixteen conundrums concerning the bride, to be answered by words beginning with "Min," afforded much amusement for the hour. The tiny booklets in which the answers were written, contained a miniature photograph of the bride and were kept by the guests as souvenirs of the occasion. Luncheon was served from small tables about the rooms, after which the bride-elect was asked to unwrap parcels containing numerous and beautiful gifts of china. The colors were red and white. Carnations furnished pretty decorations for the rooms.
