

Marriage Licenses.

Judge Mooté issued marriage licenses the past week as follows:

Sept. 29—Albert Sparrow of Primrose and Miss Jettie Jansen Portland.

Oct. 1—Robert Gustafson and Miss Katie Leiske, both of Finley. Judge Mooté then joined the couple in marriage, sending them on their way rejoicing. But this connubial bliss was somewhat shattered when the paternal ancestor of the bride, on learning of her location with her husband, at a neighboring house, proceeded to arouse the household and demanded that the truant daughter should return to the paternal domicile. Protestations on the part of the bride that she was married only served to increase the wrath of the irate parent who said he would bust up the proceedings. With this end in view, the irate parent came down to expostulate with Judge Mooté, but was advised that his daughter was married and he had better go home and cool off.—
