

Meader=Larson

W. M. Meader, who came down from McVille a couple of weeks ago, gave his friends a surprise last week. Friday he returned from a trip to Sauk Center, Minn., but he did not return alone. The bride was Miss Hannab Larson of West Union, Minn. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride's father, Mr. N. Larson, at seven o'clock Thursday evening.

During the past two years Miss Larson has been teaching in the vicinity of McVille, this state, and thru the sweetness of her nature and pleasant ways has found many friends there. Mr. Meader used to hold forth in the blacksmith shop at old McVille when it was an inland town. When the new town was started on the G. N. extension he moved his shop there and has added many friends to his list of patrons, his sterling honesty and strict attention to business always counting in his favor.

It is with a feeling of assurance that they will be fulfilled that the Pioneer extends best wishes for a bright and happy future.
