

DEAN--WILCOX

---

A very pretty home wedding was that of Miss Ethel Irene Dean and Mr. G. Raymond Wilcox on June 26th at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dean, five miles west of Clifford.

It was one of the most perfect of June days and the wedding took place out of doors under an arch of green and white from which hung suspended the wedding bell. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frederick Secord, of St. Paul, brother of Mrs. Dean. As the strains of the wedding march sounded the bride appeared leaning on the arm of her father and accompanied by Miss Cora McCombs, as bride's-maid. They were awaited by the clergyman, groom and best man, Mr. Everett Dean.

The impressive wedding ritual of the Congregational church was read and the young couple pronounced man and wife. The many and beautiful presents received testify to the esteem in which the young people are held. The bride was daintily attired in white silk, lace trimmed, and carried bride's roses. The bridesmaid was also gowned in white and carried pink roses. The groom wore the conventional black.

Miss Dean has resided in the community for a number of years past and is a lovely young lady of rare qualities of mind and heart. Mr. Wilcox is known to be a young man of sterling worth. May this young couple receive the blessings they so richly deserve.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox expect to shortly leave for Canada, where Mr. Wilcox is engaged in farming.

***