

Happily Wedded

A most delightful mid-winter event was the marriage of Henry K. Woell and Clara Cecilia Langer youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Langer, which was solemnized at High Mass on Wednesday morning last in St. Leo's church, Rev. Fr. Quillinan officiating. At 10 o'clock the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Carolyn Kilbourne announced the entrance of the bridal party, which consisted of the bride and groom and their attendants, Miss Helena Long, from Page, and Mr. Leo woell, a brother of the groom, from Edmore, N. D.

The bride's gown was a beautiful creation of cream eolium crepe over taffeta, garnished with panne velvet and pearl trimming. The hat was of white chenile braid with roses and plumes. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The groom, dressed in black, presented a manly and pleasing appearance. The gown of the bride's maid was of pale blue albatross with applique and ribbon trimming. The hat was of black panne velvet. The bride's maid's bouquet was white carnations.

Leonard's beautiful mass in B flat was rendered by the choir and the offertory, an arrangement of the Ave Maria to the melody of the Inteomezzo of Cavalleria Rusticana, was very charmingly sung by Miss Dora Klein.

At one o'clock<sup>3</sup> wedding breakfast of several courses was served to the family and immediate friends, at the home of the bride. The dining room was prettily decorated with red and white carnations and ferns. On the bridal table were cream roses with festoons of white ribbon from the chandelier to each of the four corners of the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Woell left Wednesday night for a visit to Mr. Woell's parents in Bowerville, Minn., to be absent about a month. The plans as to their future home are not as yet definitely matured.

The bride has grown to womanhood in Casselton. Her pleasing manner and amiable disposition have won her friends on every hand. The groom is a young man of sterling worth and integrity who has made many friends since his residence here. The best wishes of the entire community go with the young couple who are just entering upon a new life.—Casselton Reporter.
