

At their annual meeting last Thursday night the officers of the Congregational church and societies reported substantial gains for the year 1906. The church membership is now 70. The aid society 37, and the S. S. 91. The disbursements for the year were $1835. for home expenses and $239. for benevolence. The following officers were chosen: Clerk, Miss Georgia Gray; Treasurer, F. N. Gilmore; Deacon, M. B. Cassell; Trustees, J. H. McCollom and R. T. Kraabel; Chorister, Mrs. J. J. Wamberg; Reception committee, L. A. Jacobson, F. E. Carpenter, Ray Nelson and George E. Luce. After discussing new plans for this years work the Aid Society served a delightful lunch and all joined in a social hour of pleasure and good fellowship.
