

BURLING-LOCKTON.

The wedding of Lillian Meretta Lockton and Rev. Edwin Burling, was quietly solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Langford, on Wednesday, at 10 a. m., June 12th. Presiding Elder Moore read the service.

The bridal party entered the room to the notes of a wedding march played by Miss Minnie Langford. The bride wore a gown of grey silk crepe de chine with trimmings of lace. A reception followed the service to which a large number of friends called. The rooms were tastefully appointed with flowers and ferns. Miss Cora Houghton and Mrs. R. L. Jones waited in the hall. The bride and groom received in the music room where the wedding took place. This room was adorned with roses and ferns. Mrs. Wilmot Houghton assisted in the parlor. In one corner of this room stood a dainty table from which Miss Jenkins and Mr. Alfred Langford served punch. Clusters of carnations and plants were used in the parlor and dining room. The table had a center piece of pink carnations with wide bands of white ribbon stretched to the corners ending in large bows. Mrs. Charlie Houghton waited in the dining room as the guests stood around the table serving themselves to the dainty luncheon. As the guests took their departure a small white box tied with ribbon was given each containing a piece of the wedding cake. This little table was in a corner of the hall and waited on by Miss Minnie Langford.

Rev. and Mrs. Burling left on the afternoon train for Minneapolis. They expect to return here in a few days then will leave for Russell, N. D., where they will reside, Rev. Burling being pastor of the M. E. church at that place. Their friends all wish them a most happy and prosperous life.
