

Willard McDermott had the misfortune to break his left arm last Friday morning up at the schoolhouse. We understand that he was thrown to the hard pavement by the little Van Kleeck boy which caused the break. He was taken home and Dr. Brimi set the broken bone and the little fellow is getting along as well as could be expected. The unfortunate accident will keep him out of school for some weeks.