

C. S. Moores drove over from Hope last Friday to give the electric light company a few pointers on how to operate the gas engine they purchased from him. Mr. Moores is putting in an electric light plant in his town and expects to have it running about February 1st. He is installing a 250 horse power Corliss engine which ought to furnish all the power needed for that town for years to come.