

The Rev. H. S. Harris of this place went to Rogers on the Saturday's train to participate in the dedicatory services of the M. E. church of that place. The little town of Rogers has a church that will seat 300 in the main auditorum with every equipment including basement to be used for the social good of the town. On Sunday evening Mr. Harriss preached to a large audience at Wimbledon.