

The little eleven days old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stengele died last Sunday morning. The baby was of premature birth and too delicate to pull through. Rev. V. H. Ruring officiated at the funeral Monday afternoon and the remains were buried on the farm. Mr. and Mrs. Stengele have the sympathy of their many friends.