

Peter Aga, an old resident of Cooperstown, died at his home in this city last Monday after only a few minutes sickness. Mr. Aga who had been enjoying the best of health, was taken suddenly sick Monday, Dec. 10 and passed away before medical aid could be summoned. Mr. Aga was born in Hardanger, Norway, January 8th 1823. In 1866 Mr. Aga accompanied by his family embarked for America and went to make their home at Edgway, Iowa, until the year 1882 when they moved to North Dakota and for the last ten years have made this city their residence, both he and his wife having made their home with their son, Gunder Aga. His wife, four sons and four daughters are left to mourn their loss. The funeral was held last Friday from the Lutheran church in this city. Rev. L. M. Jensen officiating. Interment was made at the Cooperstown cemetery.