

Mrs. O. M. Varnson died in a hospital at Jamestown a few days ago. She had been sick for some little time and the cause of death is given as jaundice. Mr. Varnson has the sympathy of a host of friends at Cooperstown who deeply regret his misfortune. Mr. Varnson was married in Portland last July while visiting the exposition.