

Died, on Wednesday, September 26, 1906, Mrs. Rackel Vatne, at the ripe age of 83. The deceased was the mother of Mr. Andrew Watne, and had been ailing for some time. Old age was too powerful a foe to resist and she succumbed, her dying moments being those of peace. She had been living with her son, Andrew Vatne, who, with two other brothers and one sister, mourn the loss of their mother. The funeral service was held in the Lutheran church at this place last Friday, the remains being laid to rest in the cemetery.
