

The little five months old boy of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Iverson died last Friday night. The little fellow had been a sufferer from eczema almost from its birth. The funeral took place at the house last Sunday afternoon, Rev. O. D. Purinton officiating. The remains were interred in in the Cooperstown cemetery. The stricken parents have the sympathy of their many friends.