

Death of Mrs. Jennie Lenham.

Mrs. Jennie Lenham died at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. S. Blair, Atlantic, Pa., on Friday at 10 a. m..

Mrs. Lenham had made her home with Mrs. Blair during the past year and about three months ago she suffered a paralytic stroke, from which she never recovered.

Mrs. Lenham was born April 23d, 1841, at Youngstown, O. She united with the Reformed Presbyterian church at the age of sixteen. In November 1875 she was united in marriage to H. S. Lenham, Meadville, Pa., and after residing in Meadville for a few years they removed to Cooperstown, North Dakota, where Mr. Lenham died in 1884. Soon after she returned east, since making her home in this vicinity. At the time of her death she was a member of the Congregational church at Cooperstown, N. D., her intentions being to return west and make that place her home. She was a consistent christian, a lady who had the highest respect and confidence of a large circle of friends.

Deceased leaves three sisters, Mrs. N. F. Ellis, this place; Mrs. J. S. Blair, Atlantic, Pa.; Mrs. Wm. Artman, Meadville, Pa. The funeral was held at the Blair homestead at Sabbath at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. Kuhn, Atlantic, assisted by Rev. J. L. Hunter, this place. Interment at Rocky Glen cemetery. —Jamestown Sentinel.
