
School Items.

By Ole Olson and Peter Peterson.

The entertainment given by Dr. Featherstone for the school library was a success in every respect. Enough money was taken in for the starting of a fine library. The school will probably give another entertainment for the same purpose, at some future date. Seventy-five volumes have been purchased out of the funds of the entertainment.

Many of the scholars are down with the chickenpox.
