

WEDDING BELLS PEALING

And the Wedding March was played as never before, at the home of the Hon. W. H. H. Roney, near Clifford, N. D., at the marriage of their daughter, Jennie Agnes to Lee Miles Grant, a prosperous young farmer of that vicinity, on Monday evening, October 14th., 1895. At 7-30 the guests began to arrive from far and near and when the appointed time arrived for that mysterious knot to be tied; fully one hundred invited guests were present to witness the beautiful wedding ceremony with ring, which was most ably conducted by the Rev. W. C. Whisnand of Broadlawn.

The home was most beautifully decorated, from garret to parlor, with decorations appropriate for the occasion. Noticable among the decorations, was 1863 to 1895, in large gilt figures. These figures indicated that Monday evening was the Thirty-second anniversary of the wedding of Hon. W. H. H. Roney and wife, as well as the wedding evening of their daughter. (And by the way, Hon. W. H. H. Roney and wife are bearing up well under their weight of years. They are still hale and hearty, the progenitors of a fine large family, who can truly look up to their parents and call them blessed.) A large, beautiful horse-shoe, indicating "Good-Luck", with the word GRANT, was suspended from the ceiling in the nicely decorated parlor, under which the ceremony was performed. Miss Hattie Roney, the bride's sister, acted as Brides-maid and Earl Grant, the groom's brother, acted as best man.

The Bride was dressed in white silk and looked very tasty to say the least and the Groom wore the ordinary Prince Albert.

After congratulations had gone the rounds the guests were invited to partake of a most beautiful supper, which only the bride's mother knows how to prepare. After the festive supper was served, the guests were treated to an excellent musical entertainment, by way of a mental supper. The solos with chorus, duets, quartets, and the violin accompanied with the organ was, truly a feast for the inner man, which everybody enjoyed. The congratulations of a host of warm friends go out to Mr. and Mrs. Grant on their voyage of life and may they live long and happy is the earnest wish of a host of friends. The presents were many and some quite costly, below we give a list, as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Seal, Mr. and Mrs. B. Waurstad, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Roham and Miss Katie Hughes, two large upholstered Rockers; Ole Laundia and D. J. Gumb, Beautiful Banquet Lamp; Ruth Amalie, Antique stand, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Cassell and Chase, elegant art square rug; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Roney, Ginner set; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. H. Roney, tea set, set silver knives and forks and lamp; Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Kraabel, silver tea set; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Whisnand, cake dish; Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Major, butter knife and sugar shell; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roney, large picture; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Whisnand, large rug; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Whisnand, table cover; Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Myers, water set; Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Kraabel, gold berry spoon; Mand Kempton and Ed. Hughes, butter knife and sugar shell; Adam Major, silver napkin rings; Fred and Alta Fuller and Irene McGhan, pickle castor; Will Pickens, silver berry dish; Miller and Eva Grant, silver cake stand; J. A. Pepper, silver berry spoon; Hans Norvingson and Halver Eveningson, napkin rings; Tom and Ole Myking, sugar shell and butter knife; Harmon Girls, pair towels; Hattie and Fanelo Roney, toilet set; Edith and Harvey Williams, silver tea set; Len Fuller, silver pickle castor; Earl Grant, set silver salt and pepper shakers; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Broock, set silver tea spoons; Burd H. Finney, butter knife and sugar shell; Clara Oswald, silver berry spoon; Mrs. Sarah Mullon, table linen; Will and Emma McLean and Neal Wasson, silver pickle castor; R. A. McLean, easel and picture; W. J. Courtney, of Page, water set; Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Hunt of Fossenden, silver berry spoon; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Keene of Mayville, 1 doz. napkins and table cloth; Mr. and Miss Dyson of Coopers-town, table cloth and lace curtains; Mr. and Mrs. J. D., J. R., J. B., Grandma and Miss Emma Hickman of Monmouth, Ill., 1/2 doz. silver knives and forks, 1 doz. tea spoons, 1/2 doz. table spoons and receipt book; A. C. Johnson of Monmouth, Ill., after tea set, and Inez Bates, 1/2 doz. china salt shakers; Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Eric'sson, Parkland, Wash., silver sugar shell; Mr. and Mrs. W. Moore, Piper City, Ill., pair towels; Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Miller, Clarendo, Iowa, china after tea set, and many other presents from members of the family.

The Proxma extends congratulations and wishes Joy to follow, the newly wedded pair, to the end of long and useful lives.