

MARRIED:—Yesterday at 4 o'clock, by Rev. Whitford, Leo L. Lang and Miss Geneva King, at the residence of the bride's parents on north 3rd street. Only members of the family were present and the bride and groom left on last night's train for a short vacation in the east. The occasion was quite a surprise to many—as it came so sudden like. No introduction is necessary, as everybody know the contracting parties far better than we do. We join their large circle of friends in wishing them much joy of wedded life.
