
FIRES.

The N. W. Elevator of Cooperston burned last Friday night. There was over 25,000 bushels of wheat in it. Had it not been for the New Fire engine a couple of lumber yards and two more elevators would have burned. The town would have been endangered. The New Eureka Fire Extinguishers were freely used and it is said, with success.
