

We learn from good authority that Sheriff John J. Hogan will offer his resignation at the next meeting of the board of county commissioners Monday, July 3. His time is required to look after business matters we are told, and he deems it best to resign. He should never have accepted the nomination in that case. A. T. Ward, his deputy at this point, is a candidate, and would make a good sheriff. Albert is a good boy and may be successful.