

HOPE IN 1882.

Another car load of furniture, fixtures etc. for the Hope House, arrived yesterday.

Jas. Ellsbury, our village blacksmith, is now in his new shop ready for work.

F. M. Washburn has bought a lot and will open up a store.

A daily stage line from Hope to Newcomb, operated by Ward & Sons, is giving good satisfaction.

E. S. Humphrey & Co. will open a new drug store in Hope. They come from Fargo.

E. K. Smart, of Pembroke, Me., arrived last week with $100,000 to invest in land around Hope.

H. L. Smith is in Minneapolis.

Al Gilman returned from Minneapolis Saturday and is busy seeding.

Cyrus Skinner, of Davenport, Iowa, has just arrived with a mammoth farming outfit.

A sabbath school will be organized next Sunday.

Mrs. L. D. F. Hogue is in town.

Edward Spear, of Minneapolis, has purchased several lots in Hope.

A $300 church organ has just been bought and paid for by subscription.

Mr. Baker, of Pennsylvania, is here working for the R. R. L. Co.

The R. R. L. Co. have established a station at Newcomb side track in charge of James Masters.

Work on the new buildings go on in fine shape.

Hope wants fifty teams and can keep them busy.

The Newcomb and Hope stage comes in loaded every day.

The track layers are hard at work and we shall soon see smoke in Hope from the iron horse.

Land around Hope is selling fast. Now is the time to buy to save money.

G. W. Hodge & Son have been planting willow trees on their land on section 26-145-55.

D. P. Baldwin has opened up a portion of his big stock.

Mr. Pepper, from Piper City, Ill., with some fifteen or twenty good citizens, have located in town 147-56.

Frank M. Thurston, of Benson, and C. Cofield, are locating a big elevator here.

Frank Hill, of Kilbourn City, Wis., and Herbert Hosford, of Buffalo, D. T., have formed a partnership in the livery business. They have bought a lot on Steele avenue and the lumber is on the grounds for a mammoth livery, feed and sale stable. Both are good men.

Luce & Merriell have a stock of machinery of which any eastern city might feel proud.

Chester Kingsly assumed control of the Hope House last week, where from 80 to 100 guests are daily registered. He is the man for Hope.