

Andrew King tells us that he feeds his horses and cows through the roof of the barn. He further says that it is some what of a job to find the barn now days.

One Minute is all the time necessary