

Miss Luxton Acquitted.

The jury in the Luxton case brought in a verdict of acquittal in short order, after hearing all the evidence in the case, and Miss Luxton, accompanied by her sister Clara, together with Mrs. Andrew Morgan and Mrs. Wm. Morgan, returned home Friday, and proceeded to the home of Andrew Morgan, west of town. We learn that Miss Mary will soon leave for California. The following is taken from the Grand Forks Herald:

To the many residents of Grand Forks, whose kindness and sympathy have done much towards lightening the burden of grief resting upon our unfortunate sister and her sorrowing relatives, we, her sisters, wish to express the deepest gratitude. We wish to especially thank her attorney Mr. Cochrane, whose devotion to her cause will never be forgotten, and the attorneys for the state who treated us with great consideration. To Sheriff and Mrs. O'Connor, the court officials, the members of the jury, the newspapers and citizens generally, we are also under a deep burden of obligation for the kind and courteous treatment we have received.

—Mrs. A. Morgan,

—Miss Clara Luxton
