

The Detroit Safe Co., have written McMahon Bros., that they cannot help them open their burglar proof chest, which is inside of the big safe, without their personal attention. Their headquarters is Detroit, Mich., and the expense would be heavy to either ship the safe down or have an expert come up. They have not yet decided what to do. We hope they will fall upon the lost numbers.