

In Rochester town just south of us great excitement prevailed at the election. There were 41 ballots cast and two full tickets in the field, with the following result: Supervisors, H. S. Curry chairman, H. Martin, G. Moffett; clerk, U. E. Curry; treasurer, J. B. Andrews; assessor, W. H. Furlong; justice, G. W. Norton; constables, A. Iverson and C. H. Crumb.