

A team of horses attached to a wagon, out on the old Murray farm near Broad-lawn, ran away yesterday morning and dumped the driver, Ed Williamson, out upon the ground. One wheel struck him, fracturing his skull, making a bad scalp wound. Drs. Philip and Stephenson dressed the wound and he is resting easy at Mrs. Elliott's hotel.