

enormous gain to the country.

Joe Cummings, who has been sick all winter at the home of his brother, Oscar Cummings, died last Friday afternoon, and burial was made Sunday in the Sherbrooke cemetery. Joe had many friends in this vicinity, and a large number attended the funeral.

The Scandinavians in the northwest