

James Doyle died at Jamestown last Sunday, and was taken to Casselton on Tuesday for interment in the Catholic cemetery. Father Quillinan conducted the funeral services. Frank Doyle, Mrs. Doyle and the remainder of the family returned home from their sad errand yesterday. Mr. Doyle was born in Pennsylvania, Sept. 10, 1837, and was highly respected by all who knew him. The community extends sympathy to the sorrowing family.