

OBITUARY.

Never in all our years has the task seemed so hard to perform. The pen refuses to move. It is with the deepest regret we announce the death of Mrs. Thomas J. McMahon, at 8:45 o'clock last Friday night. Age 23 years and 13 days.

Deceased was taken with pneumonia a few days before Thanksgiving and after a brief struggle, of intense suffering, passed away, to be with her blessed Redeemer. She was a consistent christian, being a member and active worker in the Congregational church. By her christian cheerfulness and kindness she has endeared herself to all who knew her. She was a devoted wife and loving mother, leaving behind to mourn her loss; a husband and three children, besides father, mother, sister, brothers and friends.

The funeral occurred on Sabbath last, from the Congregational church, under the auspices of the Eastern Star and Royal Neighbors, of which societies she was an honored member. The remains now rest in the Hope cemetery, where kind friends may keep her grave green with beautiful flowers.

Mary Flaville Morehouse was born in St. Ansgar, Iowa, Dec. 2, 1870. Early in life she united with the Congregational church at Mitchell, Iowa. Came to North Dakota in 1889, and was united in marriage to Thomas J. McMahon in 1893. Has always endeavored to lead a christian life, teaching a class in the Sabbath school and worked for the church when able, and opportunity offered.
