

W. F. McMahan received word by wire early Monday morning that Mrs. McMahan's father who has been sick, had just died, at his home in Rochester, Minn. Mr. Hargesheimer's sudden death may interfere with the arrangements of his son Max, who contemplated returning with his sister to enter into business in Hope. Deep sympathy is extended Mrs. McMahan and her brother in their sad hours.