

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Williams, of Sherbrooke, died Monday night after a long and severe attack of scarlet fever, for several days the little one lay at the point of death and there seemed to be no change, but finally the Angel of Death called the little one to dwell with her where pain and sorrow is not known. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Williams extend their heartfelt sympathy.