

School Election.

The following is the ticket to be voted at the school election next Tuesday, February 24th.:

For the Division of Hope School District, No. 10 and the division of its property and debts as follows:

That all property both real and personal belonging to Hope School District, No. 10, located and situated in the Incorporated Town of Hope shall belong to the new special school district and that all school property both real and personal, belonging to Hope School District, No. 10, located and situated in the township outside of the incorporated town shall belong to said original Hope school district. And that all indebtedness, bonded or otherwise, of the present district, now accrued, or which may accrue prior to the division of said district, shall be assumed and paid in the following manner and terms:

"That said indebtedness shall be assumed and paid by the said Special School District to be organized out of the Incorporated Town of Hope, Steele County, North Dakota, and the District to be organized out of the original Hope School District No. 10, situated outside of the said Incorporated Town of Hope, pro rata, in proportion to the assessed valuation of the said Incorporated Town of Hope, and Hope Township, Steele County, North Dakota, for the year 1902."
