

The election held last Tuesday for the purpose of voting on the question of the division of Hope school district resulted as follows: Township, 10 for division and 25 against. Hope village 36 for division. Just why the voters of the township should take the stand they do in the matter we are unable to state, but, it does seem that they are voting against their own interests.