

SCHOOL NOTES.

The High School indulged in an old fashioned spelling match last Friday afternoon.

The last meeting of the High School Literary Society in 1901, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:45.

Maude Laramore was absent a few days last week on account of illness.

The High School is preparing a program to be rendered sometime soon after the holidays.

A number of children are absent this week on account of sickness and cold weather.

Rev. J. G. Dingle, Mrs. F. R. Rugg and Mrs. Truax, of St. Paul, have been recent visitors in the Primary Dept.

Miss Gilmore was the guest of Mrs. J. K. Joslyn on Saturday and Sunday of last week.

All are cordially invited to attend the Christmas entertainment to be given by the school in the Town Hall on Saturday evening, Dec. 21.

A beautiful bouquet adorned the Primary room last week, the gift of Elsie Klovstad.

Mr. Kraabel made a short visit to the Primary Dept. on Monday.

Myrtle Doyle is absent from the Intermediate room on account of illness.

Albert Pressly started to school in the 8th Grade last Monday.

As school closes on Friday for the holidays, the High School pupils are deep in term examinations, each afternoon being given up to examinations, while the usual work is taken up in the mornings.

The High School is now reading "D'ri and I" in connection with the course in English.

The 8th Grade is studying square and cube root, and find them plenty of fun.

Miss Minnie Bowen was a visitor to the Intermediate room on Monday.

The public school of Hope will give a Christmas entertainment at the Town Hall, on next Saturday evening. Admission free. Everybody invited.

High School Rhetoricals, for Friday, Dec. 20, 1901.

Song.....By Society.
Story.....Harry Dingle
Recitation.....Effe Hench
Recitation.....Eunice Jacobson
Recitation.....Jessie White
Instrumental.....Howard Boise
Story.....Ezra Stiles
Recitation.....Ethel Stansbury
Recitation.....Frank Mootie
Recitation.....Victor Dingle
Story.....Charles Bogart
Song.....By Society
(Effe Smith, President,
) Jennie Taplin, Secretary.