

SCHOOL NOTES.

Ethel Stansbury is a new pupil in the 8th grade.

Maud Thomas took up the 8th grade work a week ago last Monday.

There was no school last Thursday and Friday, on account of Thursday being Thanksgiving day.

Geo. Fesler, Mr. and Mrs. Olson, Mrs. Killen, Mrs. Hogue, Miss Emma Anderson and Miss Estelle Stansbury were visitors in the High School room Wednesday afternoon.

Quite a large party of boys and girls from the High School and Grammar rooms were skating at Fuller's lake, Thanksgiving afternoon. Excepting the fact that the ice was quite soft, they enjoyed a pleasant afternoon.

Monday morning the High School elected the following officers to serve for the month of December:

Librarian, Harry E. Dingle; Assistant Librarian, Ella Nelson, Organist, Edna Gray; Assistant Organist, Katie Carleton.

Snow-balling is the order at recess, just at present.

Effie Hench has been absent for the last week and a half on account of illness.

In the debate on "Resolved that the young man of today has a better chance to make life a success than his fore-fathers had," last Wednesday afternoon, Howard Boise, Richard Palfrey and Ezra Stiles, on the affirmative side, received the decision over Ella Nelson, Jennie Taplin and Eldora Doyle, on the negative side. The judges were Geo. Fesler, Harry Dingle and Effie Smith.

Geo. Carpenter is a new pupil in the High School room.

The new books for the Library were received last week, and have been placed in the library. Among them are some of the latest books, for instance, D'ri and I, The Man from Glengarry, The Helmet of Navarre, and The Crisis. A number of Government Records have also been received from Representative B. F. Spalding.

GENERAL LEW WALLACE.

"I have not words to sufficiently recommend Professor Ridpath's Historical Library, and am delighted to hear that a reduction of the price is in contemplation, as the effect will be to bring the great work within the reach of every reader."

Call in and see this beautiful set of Histories, and take advantage of the special club offer. You can pay for it at 5 cents a day.

Thanksgiving Ball.

The Thanksgiving ball given by the Order Eastern Star at the Opera House last Thursday evening was the party of the season. A large crowd was present, there being some fifty couples that participated in the grand march. The order of the dance was nicely arranged and the music was very good. The supper served by the ladies was exceptionally fine and the tables fairly groaned with the best in the land, the decorations of cut flowers, were very nicely arranged and added much to the attraction of the tables. Twenty-four numbers, with some six or seven extras, were danced. The ball was a very enjoyable affair and everyone seemed to be in the right spirit for the occasion. The ladies are certainly royal entertainers.

The Concert.

The Concert given last evening at the Opera House by the Cosgrove Co., was very good. The aggregation lines up as a first-class orchestra and many of their musical features were very fine. The company drove to Portland this morning.

MARRIED.

At the Congregational Parsonage, Wednesday evening, Nov. 27th. Mr. R. W. Zeiss, and Miss Ethel Freeland. Rev. J. T. Killen officiating. The Pioneer extends congratulations.

Ridpath's World's History.

You'll buy it sometime, anyhow. It is fast getting into all comfortable well-to-do American homes. Here's a chance to get it at clubbing rates for half price. If you let this opportunity slip you will have to pay double the price. And you can pay for it (if you like) at the rate of 5 cents a day. Isn't it common sense to get it now?

Call and see the set and learn clubbing rates.
